Planning an event for business or pleasure? Then you're looking in the right place.

Whether you're launching a product or project, planning a meeting or conference or designing the perfect wedding, Victoria offers a range of award-winning venues to suit your every need.

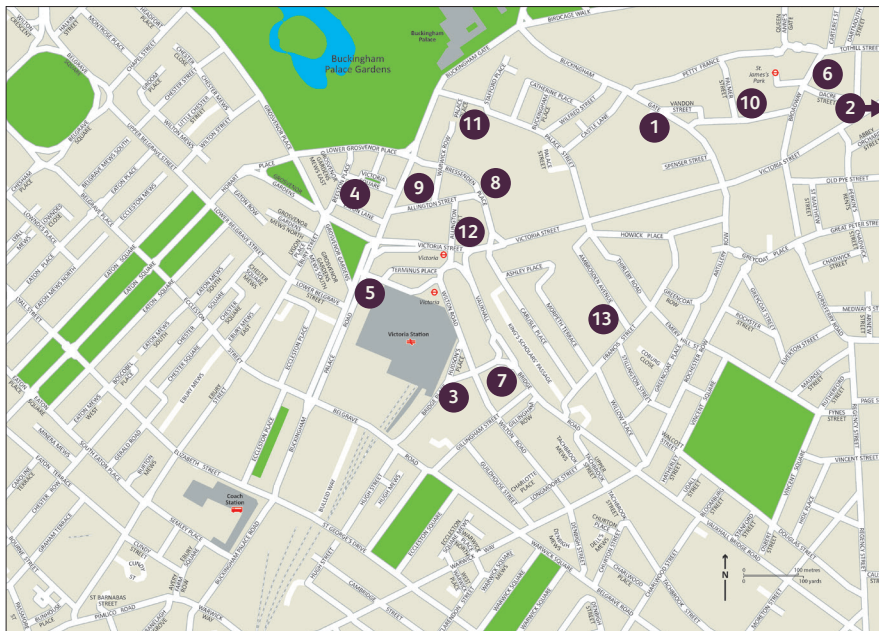

Victoria has a fusion of popular and high end shops, theatres and restaurants. It has desirability as a residential address and as a location in which some of this era's most famous creative industries, including Microsoft and Google, as well as some of the country's leading fashion houses, including Tom Ford and Jimmy Choo, have chosen to base their UK headquarters. It's a place that can claim for its own the neo-Byzantine basilica of Westminster Cathedral and the magnificent Victorian and Edwardian facades of its railway station. Grosvenor Gardens in addition to being within walking distance of the stucco fronted classicism of Belgravia and Pimlico, the royal residence of Buckingham Palace and of St James's Park, of the House of Parliament and of Westminster Abbey.

This document provides an overview of the range of venues you can expect to find in Victoria.
